Famka Services International Closed Corporation nature of business is income from rapid test kits based in Bassonia and registered with the Companies Intellectual and Property Commission (“CIPC”) in accordance with the laws of South Africa.

4. PURPOSE OF PAIA MANUAL

4.1. This PAIA Manual is intended to ensure Famka Services International Closed Corporation complies with the Act and to foster a culture of transparency and accountability within Famka Services International Closed Corporation by giving effect to the right to information that is required for the exercise or protection of any right and to actively promote a society in which people of South Africa have effective access to information to enable them to exercise and protect their rights.

4.2. In order to promote effective governance of private bodies, it is necessary to ensure that everyone is empowered and educated to understand their rights in terms of the Act in order for them to exercise their rights in relation to public and private bodies.

4.3. Section 9 of the Act however recognises that such right to access to information cannot be unlimited and should be subject to justifiable limitations, including, but not limited to;

- Limitations aimed at the reasonable protection of privacy;
- Commercial confidentiality; and
- Effective, efficient and good governance;

And in a manner, which balances that right with any other rights, including such rights contained in the Bill of Rights in the Constitution.

4.4. This PAIA manual has been drafted in accordance with the generic manual for Financial Services Industry, which has been submitted to the Human Rights Commission by the Compliance Institute of South Africa, of which this body is a member.

4.5. In addition, this PAIA manual complies with the requirements of Section 10 of the Act and recognises that upon commencement of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013, that the appointed Information Regulator will be responsible to regulate compliance with the Act and its Regulations by Public and Private Bodies.

4.6. Wherever reference is made to “Private Body” in this manual, it will refer to Famka Services International Closed Corporation a private body within the meaning of the Act, for whom this manual is drafted.

This PAIA Manual is useful for the public to-

4.6.1. establish the nature of the records which may already be available, without the need to submit a formal PAIA request;

4.6.2. have a sufficient understanding of how to make a request for access to a record of the body, by providing a description of the subjects on which the body holds records and the categories of records held on each subject;

- 4.6.3. know the description of the records of the body which are available in accordance with any other legislation;
- 4.6.4. access all the relevant contact details of the Information Officer and Deputy Information Officer who will assist the public with the records they intend to access;
- 4.6.5. know the description of the guide on how to use PAIA, as updated by the Regulator and how to obtain access to it;
- 4.6.6. know if the body will process personal information, the purpose of processing of personal information and the description of the categories of data subjects and of the information or categories of information relating thereto;
- 4.6.7. know the description of the categories of data subjects and of the information or categories of information relating thereto;
- 4.6.8. know the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal information may be supplied;
- 4.6.9. know if the body has planned to transfer or process personal information outside the Republic of South Africa and the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal information may be supplied; and
- 4.6.10. know whether the body has appropriate security measures to ensure the confidentiality, integrity and availability of the personal information which is to be processed.

17. ACCESS TO RECORDS HELD BY FAMKA SERVICES INTERNATIONAL CLOSED CORPORATION

17.1. Records held by Famka Services International Closed Corporation may be accessed by requests only once the prerequisite requirements for access have been met.

17.2. A requester is any person making a request for access to a record of Famka Services International Closed Corporation, there are two types of requesters:

17.2.1. PERSONAL REQUESTER

17.2.1.1. A personal requester is a requester who is seeking access to a record containing personal information about the requester.

17.2.1.2. Famka Services International Closed Corporation will voluntarily provide the requested information or give access to any record with regard to the requester's personal information. The prescribed fee for reproduction of the information requested will be charged.

17.2.2. OTHER REQUESTER

17.2.2.1. This requester (other than a personal requester) is entitled to request access to information on third parties. However, Famka Services International Closed Corporation is not obliged to voluntarily grant access. The requester must fulfil the prerequisite requirements for access in terms of the Act, including the payment of a request and access fee.

18. FEES

18.1. The Act provides for two types of fees, namely:

18.1.1. A request fee, which will be a standard fee; and 18.1.2. An access fee, which must be calculated by taking into account reproduction costs, search and preparation time and cost, as well as postal costs.

18.2. When the request is received by the Information Officer, such officer shall by notice require the requester, other than a personal requester, to pay the prescribed request fee (if any), before any further processing of the request.

- 18.3. If the search for the record has been made and the preparation of the record for disclosure, including arrangement to make it available in the requested form, requires more than the hours prescribed in the regulations for this purpose, the information officer shall notify the requester to pay as a deposit the prescribed portion of the Access fee which would be payable if the request is granted.
- 18.4. The information officer shall withhold a record until the requester has paid the fees as indicated in Appendix 2.
- 18.5. A requestor, whose request for access to a record has been granted, must pay an access fee for reproduction and for search and preparation, and for any time reasonably required in excess of the prescribed hours to search for and prepare the record for disclosure including making arrangements to make it available in the request form.
- 18.6. If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access, which is refused, then the information officer concerned must repay the deposit to the requester.

19. DECISION

- 19.1. Famka Services International Closed Corporation will, within 30 days of receipt of the request, decide whether to grant or decline the request and give notice with reasons (if required) to that effect.
- 19.2. The 30-day period with which Famka Services International Closed Corporation has to decide whether to grant or refuse the request, may be extended for a further period of not more than thirty days if the request is for a large amount of information, or the request requires a search for information held at another office of Famka Services International Closed Corporation and the information cannot reasonably be obtained within the original 30-day period. Famka Services International Closed Corporation will notify the requester in writing should an extension be sought.
